ANTHONYASAËL-STÉPHANIERABEMIAFARA

Child art

For a snapshot of children's creativity around the world don't miss the exhibition Art in All of Us, showing at Antwerp's Central Station until May 1. Anthony Asaël and Stéphanie Rabemifara spent five years visiting 310 schools in 192 UN-member countries to set up art workshops that would stimulate creativity and promote tolerance for the non-profit organisation, www.artinallofus.be.
